PAUL DAVIS
Restoration & Remodeling

Locally owned, nationally recognized.

Paul Davis Restoration & Remodeling has a rich tradition of turning homes into places of comfort, warmth, security and inspiration. And we'd like to help you discover in your house the home that's more you. Changes and improvements to your home can provide ongoing satisfaction for you and your family, and often can increase the value of your home. At Paul Davis, we offer a full range of remodeling and design services to help turn your vision into reality.

Our heritage

Paul Davis Restoration & Remodeling has a history of over 40 years of collaboration on home improvement, restoration and remodeling projects. Our reputation was built on bringing calm and order to homeowners' lives by restoring homes ravaged by fire, water or other damage. So we know the importance of doing quality work efficiently and effectively while minimizing disruption to your household. As a remodeling company, we bring together our passion for quality work and our commitment to service to enable the outcome of your project to exceed your expectations.

Our work

The scope of our experience includes projects of every type and size, from adding a new feature to a room to complete home remodels. Our expertise includes:

Kitchens

Bathrooms

Room Additions

Family Rooms

Decks

Patio Enclosures

Complete Remodels

Working with you

Your Paul Davis representative will provide a complimentary, in-home consultation to discuss your needs, ideas, and budget. Following our written proposal to you, we will also provide a timeline showing scheduled milestones so you'll know what to expect when. Our process includes keeping you, the homeowner, informed and updated on an ongoing basis, and we will solicit your feedback as the project progresses.

From the layout of a new kitchen to flooring materials to the handles on your new bathroom cabinets, we'll carefully address and discuss with you each and every element of your remodeling project – because this is your vision, your lifestyle, your home.

Please contact us for a complimentary, in-home consultation scheduled at your convenience.
