Locally owned, nationally recognized.

Working with you

•••• Our goal is to turn your vision into reality for your clients. We understand the requirements and practices of working with design professionals, and we have the knowledge and skills to complete the project to your exacting standards. Every detail — from the planning stage to completion — is executed to specification.

•••• At Paul Davis Restoration & Remodeling, we recognize that trust, collaboration and communication are key to the success of any design project. A shared and aligned understanding of the critical elements of each project is fundamental to our relationship with you and ultimately with your client, and we work as your partner to ensure that the process is as professional as the end result.

•••• With every job, we bring together our passion for quality work and our commitment to service so that you can be confident that your clients' projects will meet or even surpass expectations.

Working with the homeowner

•••• We realize that your relationship with your client is of utmost importance, so we work closely with you and the homeowner every step of the way on their project. From our initial meetings with you and your client through the final inspection of our finished work, our objective is to ensure that the process is smooth and that everything is completed satisfactorily.

Our heritage

•••• Paul Davis Restoration & Remodeling has a history of over 40 years of collaboration on home improvement, restoration and remodeling projects. As a remodeling company, the scope of our experience includes projects of every type and size, from single-room remodels to ground-to-roof restorations. For every project we do, relationships based on trust and understanding form the cornerstone of success.

Our company looks forward to partnering and collaborating with you on your projects.
